

Petition Gathering Instructions

1. No Constitutional Initiative Petition circulated for signature may be bundled with or attached to any other petition form. Petitions should not contain printing on the back.
2. State law prohibits distributing Constitutional Amendment Initiative Petition Forms with more than one petition per page. If you choose to print two petitions per page, you must cut the page into two separate petitions prior to soliciting petition signatures. Soliciting petition signatures with more than one petition per page is a misdemeanor. Personhood Florida cannot not process any petitions that have more than one petition per page.
3. Each Petition must include the following:
 - a. The voter's name.
 - b. The voter's residential street address (including city and county);
 - c. The voter's date of birth or voter registration number;
 - d. The voter's signature; and
 - e. The date the voter signed the petition, as recorded by the voter.
4. For more information on the legal requirements of gathering petition signatures, see the following: <http://election.dos.state.fl.us/constitutional-amendments/init-peti-process.shtml#circulation>.

Instructions for Printing 2 Petitions Per Page

The Personhood Florida Constitutional Amendment Initiative Petition Form has been designed so that two petitions can be printed per page. This cuts printing costs in half and allows the cut petition to fit inside a church bulletin. Please note the following though:

State law prohibits distributing Constitutional Amendment Initiative Petition Forms with more than one petition per page. If you choose to print two petitions per page, you must cut the page into two separate petitions prior to soliciting petition signatures. Soliciting petition signatures with more than one petition per page is a misdemeanor. Consequently, Personhood Florida cannot distribute a copy of the petition with two petitions per page, even in PDF (electronic) form. Personhood Florida cannot not process any petitions that have more than one petition per page.

To print two petitions per page, do the following:

1. Print as many copies as you wish to print of page 2 of this document. This will print the petition on the left side of the page(s).
2. Re-insert the paper into the printer and print the same number of page 3 of this document. (You may want to print one copy to test the procedure to make sure you have the paper inserted correctly to print page 3 on the right side of the page.
3. Cut the page in half to create two petitions. Remember that soliciting petition signatures in Florida with more than one petition per page is a misdemeanor.
4. If you plan to print more than 50 petitions, contact Personhood FL for a printer exemption so that we can send you a file with two petitions per page.
